

DO NOT CIRCULATE

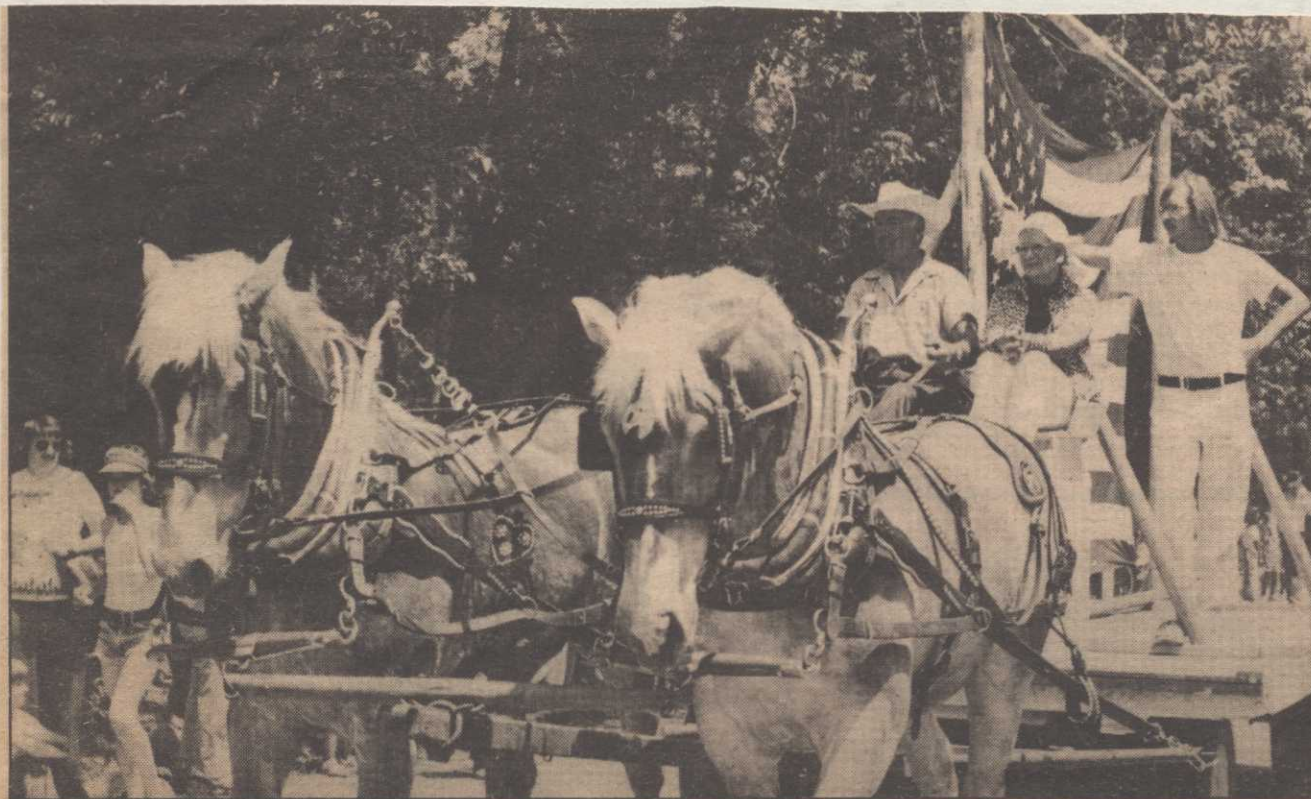

The celebration at John Wood's Old Mill included several public speakers dedicating the mill and urging a "quality of timelessness" in park be instilled in parks such as Deep River Park, which officially opened last Saturday.
HG 6-2-77

The recently renovated Old Mill was the site of a weekend arts and crafts fair open to the public in celebration of both Memorial Day and the opening of Deep River Park.

Cannon guards brace themselves for the three rounds of fire which marked the Saturday's official opening of Deep River Park.

The American flag, drawn by these two handsome horses in the true American tradition, highlighted the Old Mill Memorial Day Parade.

146 6-2-77

This little Indian enjoyed the parade from the front of a huge teepee erected in the park in commemoration of the first real Americans.